Baby Puss

By Unknown

GIRL:

naughty little baby...
...running away
from your mama like that.
Now, you come right out of there...
...or I will get my hairbrush and I will
spank you right on your little didee.
Land sakes. Like I always say,
it ain't the work, it's the worry.
Now you get right back
in your little bed.
And now it's time for your dinner,
and here it is.
And now I am going downtown
and buy me a new girdle.
And you stay right in your little bed
or I will spank you again and...
Goodbye.

Now you get right back in.

in your mouth.
And it will taste awful bad,

and that ain't good.
