Are you ready?
[Josh] Well, One, .. two, .. three
[Ling] Three
It has been written into the history books.
First-time immemorial in this country by a foreign invasion.
Fortunately, getting help from the Dragon.
Coupled with the Emperor against the enemy's courage.
Saved state.
But the pearl is lost since the war.
The emperor also died in grief.
Or this story should be written so:
Truth is still hidden in the long history

Even the emperor did not die in the battlefield and the pearl is not lost
The emperor's favorite daughter became Queen of the Kingdom.

- To overcome the grief-stricken.

[Princess] Stop

[Princess] Pearl will be buried with my father here!

- He was very angry

- Blaming the death of his father at the Pearl Dragon.

[Historian] Princess

Dragons need it

He will always protect my dad forever!

To punish the Dragon

Princess Pearl ordering must ..

Buried along with the King.

No one will know this truth.

Should not let people know that pearls are here.

To keep a secret.

He destroyed the records of historians.

- And ordered to rewrite the whole story

[Princess] What is happening today.

Day's events should not be anyone to say it out.

Otherwise, none of you may live.

- In the new story, Pearl is not buried in the tomb of Emperor

[Princess] you have to follow my words to write the history of my King.

- But missing on the battlefield.

[Historian] Both daughters.

- Since this will be passed on as history.

[Princess] A general

[Princess] For the sake of his own country fight it out.

- And thousands of years Dragon has been waiting for until one day

He can re-find the missing pearls.

And then returned to Khayangan.

Inside the tomb? Pearl?

[Wu Dong] Really?

[Ling] Yes, we have also seen it.

Not like it was written in the book.

Dragon tells of Pearl

Which has been written to confuse grave robbers.

Princess Pearl hopes to protect his father. Forever.

So the entrance of the tomb.

They have opened the door first.

[Josh] Pearl Dragon.

[Ling] Then what should we do?

Successor destiny!

You must return to the Dragon Pearl Dragon.

[Wu Dong] It is the responsibility of you!

[Ling] I?

If you do not do.

Pearls will be placed in museums or maybe worse

The stranger, you're right.

You must do something quickly.

Go!

Wait, Philip said that the water will rise.

Will flood the entire tomb!

Will destroy all the objects that exist within.

Waw ...

[Josh] Siau Ling, what would you do?

[Ling] I'll tell my mom.

You should not be so.

[Ling] This is the fastest way.

[Josh] It's not the best way.

He could not believe you.

You see what happened to my last.

I do not like about you.

Siau Ling

[Dr. Lee] Please wrapped, I will send it to Beijing!

- Good

Can I make suggestions?

Better give me time to learn this ancient book.

I could see a few days.

Discover new perspectives.

Philip is not your expertise.

Chris you can not say so.

I've studied many ancient books.

I know where to answer the mystery.

I think you know

We better be the best on our own field.

[Dr. Lee] Comrades, please book sent immediately to Beijing.

[Chris] It's obviously not good, why not ...

Mama

There is one thing I want to say.

We flew together, to see the past

Dragon brings us

Mama, why do you have that?

I am very worried about you Lingling.

We must return to the Dragon Pearl Dragon.

Inside the tomb

I think he really should be checked properly.

Sometimes a small amount of bleeding of the brain can cause hallucinations.
It was too funny, mama.
[Josh] Hey Dad.
[Chris] Wait Josh.
I went to the line below.
[Josh] I think I found a clue.
[Chris] Josh, please.
Josh and I have seen it.
Is Josh should also do a check?
Lingling.
Yes, the dragon one.
We flew along with the dragon.
Also returning to the ancient
It's really a compliment
What more do you want to convey?
What do you mean?
Lingling I do not know why.
I also do not know where he could tell.
But I'm fine, really understand the situation.
And I do not?
I'm not saying that.
But you think so.
Next time I take you up the mountain. They look good!
Very, very nice.
Do you know Josh?
You can come very good.
If you are not happy, I do not blame you.
One day you will understand Believe me!
But now
You hallucinations, and attitudes you

There are a lot of work to be done
Which is also a great thing.
And we are now at stake
The problem is enough, enough Josh!
Slowly-lahanlah.
I told you they would not believe.
Mama I do not believe me makes me sad.
Already feeling now?
You know?

What?
Lingling, we go.
Are you okay?

Still good.

Of course, I do not need to know why.

I think it's very important.

Welcome to my lair

You read all this?

Sure, the innards of this game getting to know better.

The book will not be exhausted studied.

- Sit down Josh.

- Thank you.

Listen, you're very enthusiastic.

Your ability to solve puzzles are also very great.

I believe you have found a way.

The trick?

Dad you're not sure the book is the key to the tomb.

He thinks the answer is in the book.

I do not feel that way.

The holes in the book.

You've seen it. What can you see?

How can you not honestly tell you my father?

It's useless, my father did not believe me.

Come on all parents must be stubborn.

What do you recanakan?

Actually, I'm also not clear.

Actually.

I suggest you look carefully these ancient books.

Before then sent to Beijing

Or before being taken by thieves.

The thief that day almost succeeded.

I was always told to put the place of storage of goods.

A safe place.

Just in place under the table, too dangerous.

But

Your father change their password combination is new in the security box.

But what combination?

This is still a mystery?

Are you tired?

[Dr. Lee] You're still angry with me?

[Ling] Ga may I?

Next time remind me if I am angry again.

Remind me to do a brain.

I just hope you're okay.

Just that it?

Well, do so. Ok?

Well, good night!
Hand you a cold, we go heat up first.
Come, come, come, let's
